ACROSTIC.

Everybody laughs to see
Such a plight as mine;
Playground or park and one lone tree
Looks a little out of line.
A superb lot of trees
Not long since grazed the place,
And now only one of these Delights the park to grace, Erewhile it fell to please.
—Your Uncle Bill.

Yesterday was a combination and mixture of all kinds of weather.

Mr. Perry Alexander, the handsome L. and N. Baggage Master, took a day off yesterday and put in the time calling on his lady friends in the city.

The prayer-meeting at the Christian Church tonight at 7:30 will be in the interest of the C.
W. B. M. Subject "The Need of Consecrated Christian Womanhood."

New School Building!

Owing to the fact of the School Board's having bought the old Parkhouse (our warehouse) for the site for the new High School Building, we are obliged to move all our vehicles within the next 60 days;
and we have figured that it would be better to sell them than to move, a store room in Maysville is pretty scarce just now, and besides it is very expensive to move four or five carloads of crated vehicles.

Therefore!

We are beginning today the most phenomenal sale of vehicles ever held in Maysville, and a word to the wise should be sufficient.
"If you are contemplating the purchase of a rig of any kind, now is your opportunity."

Mike Brown THE "SQUARE DEAL" MAN.

The Pearce will case was continued till the next term of the Circuit Court.

DE WOLF HOPPER

Captures Maysville—Big Comedian Delights a Large Audience at Washington Theater

The Shubert production of "Happyland," as rendered by the De Wolf Hopper Opera Company, at the Washington Theater last night, was probably the most beautiful and elaborate performance ever seen on a Maysville stage.

De Wolf Hopper, always inimitable, was magnificent last evening and as a comedian he never had an equal in his class. The big funmaker had his audience with him and kept 'em a going for three hours with gurgling merriment, in the role of "King Ecstasies of Ely-sin." His leading lady, Miss Marguerite Clarke, a lovely little Cincinnati product, was the bright and shining star of the evening and completely delighted the audience with her beauty, her poses and her singing.

The entire support given Mr. Hopper was first-class from start to finish.

The audience was one of the largest and most representative ever seen at the Washington and "King Ecstasies" added over $600 to his already overflowing exchequer.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER is pleased to see that our local stage is being elevated to the plane of a metropolitan playhouse, and a few more productions and audiences like those of last night will give old Maysville the theatrical prestige she ought to enjoy.

"Happyland" opened the new Lyric at Cincinnati, and will open for another week at that house Sunday night, after which the opera will play the season at Norfolk, during the Jamestown Exposition.

Creightonham, Tailor, No. 6 E. Second st.

Mr. A. M. Jannary, traveling salesman for the Ohio Valley Pailery Works, will arrive home today from a five weeks trip

Ex-Jailer John Johnson, whose continued illness has several times been noted in THE LEDGER, was taken to Cincinnati yesterday where he was placed in the Good Samaritan Hospital for treatment. Ever since the death of his wife, several months ago, his health has been on the decline.

Mrs. Virginia Hedlin Turner, Miss Julia Van-arsdall and brother, William, came down from Flemingsburg last evening and attended the attraction at the Washington Opera-house, De Wolf Hopper in "Happyland." While here they were guests of Mrs. Isaac Woodward of West Fourth street.

Police Court.

Yesterday the Police Court representative consisted of Mike Boyle, Garfield Boyd, Virginia Johnson and George Hollans, jointly contributed $35 to the School Fund for breaking the law.

The C. and O. Railroad Cites the Employers' Liability Act

The C. and O. Railroad Company, in its answer Monday at Lexington to the $50,000 damage suit brought against it by the Administrator of the estate of Michael McGlade, the employers' liability act, passed by Congress June 11th, 1906, is set up as a defense.

The Company avers that this act annulled and superseded the laws of Kentucky giving the right to recover for injuries or death of an employee of a common carrier engaged in trade between states.

The plea is the first made in Kentucky under the new law.

uors made.

While at the Hotel Knickerbocker in New York City about two weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs.
George B. Cox, of Cincinnati, were victims of sneak thieves who stole from their room a large number of jewels and ornaments belonging to Mrs. Cox, valued at $35,000.

SLOOT—SHERMAN.

Mr. Charles Sloop, aged 23, of Newport, who gave his occupation as that of a carpenter, and Miss Lena Sherman, aged 23, of Mason county, were married yesterday in St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father Jones officiating. They left for Newport to make that city their home.

Attorney Delmas addressed the Jury in behalf of Harry Thaw Tuesday. His speech laid bare every phase of the Thaw defense and justified the killing of White on the ground of temporary insanity, caused by White's many attempts to seduce and lead Evelyn away from him.

Jerome will sum up for the prosecution today, and in view of the many side-steps he has already taken in his conduct of the case, his speech is looked forward to, not as a consistent legal effort, but rather, as a vain attempt to say or do something to square himself with Jury and public.

Thaw's acquittal is said to be certain.

BOARD OF TRADE

Officers and Directors of the Maysville Organization

The above organization has been in existence for eight years.

At the annual meeting held Wednesday, April 3d, 1907, the following Directors were selected: E. P. Browning, W. H. Means, J. B. Russell, C. M. Philster, D. Hechinger, J. Ed. Parker, J. W. Fitzgerald, W. W. Wikoff, E. L. Manchester, Millard Merz, Harry C. Curran, John Duley, A. F. Curran, John J. Altmeyer, Mike Brown, M. F. Congblin, John C. Everett, H. S. Ellis and John M. Hunt.

John Duley was chosen President, Millard Merz, Vice-President, and Harry C. Curran, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Board hopes to have the hearty co-operation of all of our citizens. The year 1907 should be one of the best that the city has ever experienced. The citizens of Maysville and the surrounding country are in a prosperous condition. Our merchants are, enterprising and they have well selected stocks of goods which they are offering at prices which should attract the customers from a wide scope of territory. These conditions should mean a prosperous year.

Miss Marguerite Clark, the beautiful and fascinating leading lady with De Wolf Hopper and his popular opera company, was the guest of honor at an elegant six-o'clock dinner last evening at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cochran, in East Second street. The other guests included Miss Cora Clark, of Cincinnati, who chaperons her petite sister, Marguerite, Miss Hattie Cochran and Mr. Harry C. Curran. The Misses Clark, both popular Cincinnati girls, are well known to many Maysville people, Miss Cora being a school mate of Mrs. W. D. Cochran and both are close acquaintances of Mrs. Curran.

Mrs. Cochran, always the personification of the gracious hostess, was at her best at this delightfully informal dinner, and with the wit and beauty of the fair and vivacious Miss Marguerite, the occasion was one of interest and social enjoyment.

DID YOU SEE our announcement last week? When you saw announced the fact that we were buying pianos of world-wide reputation in CARLOADS did you realize that it meant a saving of thousands of dollars to the community? A great many people noticed this announcement and profited thereby.

From the North, From the South, From the East, From the West

They come. They not only come, but they bought.

Here Is Last Week's List!

One Kohler & Campbell to California, Ky.
One Ebersole to Cincinnati.
One Self-Player to Cincinnati.
One Smith & Nixon to Georgetown.
One Armstrong to Georgetown.
One Kohler & Campbell to Carlisle.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, April 4, 1907.

The Missions!

Easter Day I made a pilgrimage to these milestones of civilization and christianization. There are four of them—the First and Second in fair condition for "ruins," but the remaining two not so well preserved nor interesting. All were built by the Franciscan Monks in the early part of the Eighteenth Century, when Texas was a Spanish possession. Their erection was a stupendous task, as the materials, chiefly small stones and cement, had to be gathered from long distances, in which the Monks were aided by friendly Indians. They are located at intervals of about two miles, and were formerly connected by tunnels long since filled up.

The First Mission, built in 1734, is within the city limits, and the original Chapel, altar and seats are so well preserved that services are held there at stated periods. Like the Alamo, the walls of these Missions are four feet thick, rendering them invulnerable to attacks from Indians, but a poor defense in modern warfare. The numerical order of these structures has no bearing on their age, as they are reckoned as they were reached by the traveler between San Antonio and Mexico. Aside from the Chapel, the habitable portions of the First Mission are occupied by an old German who conducts a dairy and conservatory, scooping not a little bucksheesh from tourists; but on the occasion of my visit he had surrounded and captured so much Easter egg-dye, that he couldn't tell whether the Mission was built by Saint Peter or my good friend Father Jones!

The Second, or San Jose Mission, built in 1711, the largest and by far the most interesting of the chain, is in charge of a courteous and intelligent Mexican gentleman, who takes some pains to "show one through" in return for the modest admission fee of 10 cents. This immense structure, some 200×300 feet, with fifteen acres of adjacent land, was originally surrounded by a heavy stone wall, juts of which are still to be seen, the main portion having years ago been sold for road-making purposes—commercialism thus permeating even sacred things. Immediately fronting the Mission—or Church—proper, is a small burial plat, then a huge adobe Granary where the farm products were stored for safe keeping. In rear and to the South of the Church, but under the same roof, were the Convent, school and dining-rooms, and to this day is preserved the old-fashioned baking oven. On the South, also, is a small room and altar where the neighboring Mexicans worship. The carved door leading into this room is a marvel of workmanship, said to be without a rival, even in the Old World. But the glory of San Jose finds fullest expression in its lofty facade, surmounted with numerous life-sized statues and elaborate carvings that occupied for more than a year a famous sculptor commissioned by the King of Spain to do the work. That these old fellows did their duty well is evidenced by examples of red and blue paint which still brighten outer portions of this massive pile, despite exposure to the sunshine and storms of nearly two centuries! As one gazes in wonderment upon these magnificent ruins, the thought unbidden comes, What of the faithful and self-sacrificing builders of these religious temples in the desert, and what of their devoted worshippers?

But if I don't get away from this Mission I'll be charged with preaching a sermon, and Ledger readers know that's out of my line.

Vinol Restored the Health of Miss Blair, President of Sophomore Club

Miss Rose Blair, President Sophomore Club, Kansas City, writes: "Last spring I was all run down, nervous and irritable. I lost my appetite and could not sleep. I tried many medicines without benefit. Your cod liver preparation, Vinol, was recommended, and it certainly worked wonders for me. It was delicious and not at all like the greasy cod liver oil and emulsions I was used to. Vinol gave me a hearty appetite and restored me to perfect health and strength."

Vinol cures conditions like this because it contains all of the curative medicinal elements found in cod liver oil without a drop of the useless oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron added, and it strengthens every organ in the body.

Ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, or weak person in Mayville, and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging coughs or bronchial troubles to try Vinol. Our guarantee to return money if it fails. C. P. CORCORAN, Druggist.

NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Mayville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

ROUGH RIDER DAVIS

Is Hiking For Home After Enjoyable Campaign "Down in Texas."

The Daddy of THE PUBLIC LEDGER has tired of eating hot tamales and fighting the flies and mosquitoes down in San Antonio, and is hiking for home as fast as steam and steel can pull him. Ex-Editor Thomas A. Davis, Mrs. Davis and their niece, Miss Mollie T. Edmonds, left San Antonio last evening and are due to arrive in Mayville Thursday night or Friday morning.

Mr. Davis writes that he has enjoyed his outing, the first real long one he has had in forty years.

Horace Greeley once said that for thirty years he had been hoping to go a-fishing, but that he could never spare the time, and he died without knowing what a holiday was.

Mr. Davis has earned a good rest, and his many friends expect to find him bronzed like a Roosevelt Rough Rider, wearing a slouch hat and hooted and spurred like a typical "Texian." So if you see such an apparition galloping up Second street about Friday morning, mounted on a bucking bronco, don't get skeered, it's only "Colonel T. A. Davis of Texas, sab!" doing a few Buffalo Bill stunts for his physical health.

Bravo, brava, hello, and welcome! Kernel! de old town am yours, without firing a gun!

RINGOLD LODGE, I. O. O. F.

Ringold Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular meeting this evening at 7:00 at DeKalb Lodge Hall. W. W. McElvaine, N. G. Simon Nelson, Secretary.

DEATHS

CLARENCE LEFORGE.

C. LeForge, the popular baggage master on the L. and N. afternoon train entering this city, died Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock at his home in Johnson Junction, aged 22 years. He was first taken down with measles followed with typhoid fever.

He was a young man of sterling worth and having been in the passenger service of the L. and N. on this division the past several years, he had by his courteous manner and cheerful disposition, won the respect of everyone with whom he came in contact.

He leaves a father and mother, two brothers and two sisters who have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

His funeral occurred this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Flemingsburg Cemetery.

MRS. THOMAS LYNCH.

Mrs. Thomas Lynch died last evening at 5:30, after an illness of seven weeks, from excessive grief over the death of her son.

She was born in Tnsm, County Galway, Ireland, February 2d, 1837, and came to this county with her father when 14 years old, where she spent her life in this community respected and loved by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn a mother's loss, four children—Miss Anna Lynch, Mrs. William McDonough, Mr. Michael J. Lynch, of this city, and Mrs. James Kinseid, of Cincinnati.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. Interment in Washington Cemetery.

Louisville is booming her regatta.

A coalboat stage is needed at Pittsburgh.

The Raymond Horner passed up Monday with a big tow of empties and the Crescent followed suit yesterday.

There is very little coal at Louisville to go South, and none loaded at Pittsburgh and ready to leave there.

At Lexington 144 saloons have taken out license.

The letters of Queen Victoria are to be published in book form.

It costs about $125,000,000 a year to bury the dead in America. There are 6,000 funerals a day.

The Lyric theater, but recently opened at Lexington has closed its doors and the manager has eloped with all the cash.

Congressman Rainey of Illinois, who recently returned from Panama, says graft is ripe in the commissariat of the canal and that the meat served to the employees is unpalatable, owing to defective methods of handling.

Portsmouth Blade: "The temperance advocates at Ironton are arguing that local option will put the old town on the bum, while the wet goods men are insisting that it will be put on the bum. But even a bad move is better than inertia."

Tired Nervous Women Make Unhappy Homes

MRS. NELLIE MAKHAM

MRS. GEO. A. JAMES

A nervous irritable woman, often on the verge of hysterics, is a source of misery to everyone who comes under her influence, and unhappy and miserable herself.

Such women not only drive husbands from home but are wholly unfit to govern children.

The ills of women act like a fire brand upon the nerves, consequently seven-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, the "blues", sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some organic derangement.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness alternating with extreme irritability? Do you suffer from pains in the abdominal region, backache, bearing-down pains, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, and almost continually cross and snappy? If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

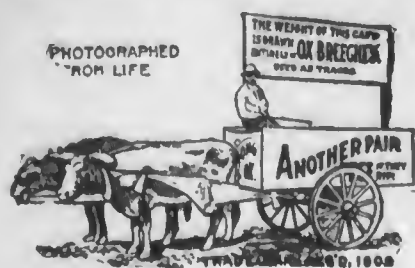

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous troubles of women than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

St. Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I was a wreck from nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

EAST LIMESTONE.

Miss Ella Parker, of Orangeburg, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Cyrus Case.

April showers are very refreshing to the young wheat and tobacco plants.

Miss Mande Sloop, of Newport, is the pleasant guest of Miss Lena Sherman.

Mr. Frank Deiterich, of Maysville, was making short calls in this vicinity Sunday.

Mr. Johnnie Welle, of the Orangeburg vicinity, was in this neighborhood Wednesday on business.

Master James Lashbrook was the recipient of a fine young pony recently, presented by his uncle, Mr. James Lashbrook.

School closed at Bernard Friday, April 5th, after a successful term of eight months, taught by Mr. Morton Griffith, of Brooksville, prizes were awarded to Bert and Edna Steven's, each receiving a nice book.

Mr. Forest Sloop had the misfortune recently, to have one of his teeth knocked out by throwing a marble down on a rock, the marble bouncing up and striking him in the mouth. It cost Mr. Sloop $5 to have the tooth replaced not to say anything of the pain he had to endure.

The death of Mr. Hanson Myers, of Rectortown, came as a shock to his many friends in this neighborhood. He was a young man of kind and generous disposition, loving and devoted to his parents, who have the sympathy of all in this community in their deep sorrow.

WORTHY CAUSE

"He That Hath Pity on the Poor, Lendeth Unto the Lord."

What is more praiseworthy, or appeals to one's better nature, than assisting a cause looking to the welfare and interest of the orphan and friendless? Such is the function of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, of Louisville. Maysville is represented on the Board of Managers in the person of Mr. J. E. Parker, who is ever ready and willing in lending his aid in furthering the interests of this grand institution.

It is non-sectarian.

It seeks to place in good homes the homeless, destitute children of the state, regardless of Church affiliations of the parents. The Society carefully endeavors to find suitable homes for its wards. After their placement the Society maintains a systematic watch-care over them, removing them when the relations are discovered not to be for the best interest of the child.

The most needy child is the most earnestly sought. The unfortunate child cannot escape the efforts of the Society to relieve it.

In the year 1897 the Society began its work in Kentucky. In the brief period of ten years nine hundred children have been placed under the guardianship of the Society and have been placed in family homes. In addition fifteen hundred children have been benefitted through the Aid Department.

The National Children's Home Society, of which the Kentucky Society is a branch, now embraces twenty-nine states, and has placed in homes about 35,000 children.

Beyond the current expenses, funds are now greatly needed to build and equip a much needed hospital for the sick and crippled children. Mr. W. F. Payne, District Superintendent, is now in our city and any contribution you might wish to give will be thankfully received.

This city and county has in the past two years sent about a dozen children to the Home.

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles." Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 7th St., New York, N. Y.
